Activity

Tissue Walking

What You Need:

Box of tissues (or a few sheets of toilet paper)

What You Do:

Invite your preschoolers to play a game with you. Say, "I'm going to give you a tissue. I want you to place the tissue on your head and walk across the room like this with the tissue balanced on your head. (Demonstrate.) If anyone's tissue falls, everyone must freeze! I will be your helper and place your tissue back on your head. Then I will count to three and everyone can unfreeze and walk again."

Give each child a tissue to place on their head. Say, "Are you ready? Let's go! Start walking and we'll watch to see if it falls."

As your preschoolers walk, watch for any tissues to fall. When anyone's tissue falls, say, "Freeze!" All kids must freeze. Pick up the fallen tissue and place it back on the child's head. Then count to three and encourage all kids to walk around again.

Play as long as time and interest allow.

Say, "That was some great balancing you did. But did you know what my favorite part was? Being your helper. God gave us so many good things, including people who help us! Who is good? God is good!"

Prayer

"Dear God, thank You for giving us people to help us. You are so good! Thanks for loving us. And we want to say, 'We love YOU,' too! Amen."
