SUCCESS STORIES

From Death to Life

Meet Shavaya. Shavaya grew up in a Christian home but like so many, went through a season of running from God. That led her to walk through depression and addiction. In this season, she had her son. She still felt so empty. One day when she was driving, she debated ending her life; there was nothing worth living for anymore. Then a deer came in front of her car, and God just reminded her that He never left. The next day she ran into John and Kim Leland. Kim pulled her aside and spoke life into her and invited her to their 12Stone Home Gathering. Once Shavaya entered into a meaningful community through 12Stone Home, she was there each week. She started telling her friends about Jesus and living the life God had called her to. She went from debating death to every time she sees an animal while driving gets reminded of God's goodness and faithfulness. When the "Can't Stop Spokane" event happened, she jumped up to host a four-week pop-up gathering for 12Stone Home. Now she is on fire for Jesus AND going through 12Stone Home leader training to continue to lead her own gathering in the coming months!
