ABOUT ME

Hi! I'm an illustrator and a graphic designer from Pune, India. I am currently based in London and have completed a master's degree in illustration at UAL. I am very passionate about art and I love spending time musing over the small joys life has to offer. Social causes, people and nature inspire me and I try to capture the subtler, more meaningful moments of everyday life in my work. I love being around people and I always try my best to help anyone who might need a hand.
