IMPORTANT INFORMATION / DISCLAIMER

Rescue costs:

Rescue costs are not borne by the event organiser, landowners etc. and must be paid by the injured person. For this reason, mountain rescue insurance is strongly recommended. Each participant signs a disclaimer to this effect when collecting their start number.

Rules of conduct:

Trail running events are held in nature, lead through nature reserves and over existing paths, trails, gravel paths, forest roads, and private and public roads. Traffic laws must be observed, and you must run on the left with oncoming traffic. Order must be maintained when crossing public roads and private property. Immediate disqualification by the organiser should be expected in the case of unfair behaviour towards other participants, denial of assistance if other participants experience an emergency and if polluting nature. Should you be missing any items from the mandatory equipment at the inspection before the start, these may be acquired before the start if still possible, otherwise starting the KAT100 will not be permitted. Should the items be missing during an en-route inspection, the organiser will take this participant out of the competition.

Disclaimer:

The event organiser accepts no liability for damage to persons and property. This also applies to lost or stolen clothing or other items. By collecting their start number, each participant makes a binding declaration that they have no knowledge of any reasons or risks which may make participation dangerous to their health. Each participant acknowledges the event organiser's exemption from liability for damage or injury of any kind and will not make any claims for damage or injury of any kind arising from participation against the event organiser, the municipalities and private landowners through whose land the race leads nor their representatives. Each participant declares that they have sufficiently trained for participation in this competition, they are physically fit and that their health has been medically confirmed. The race doctor, rescue workers and stewards have the power to remove obviously physically and mentally weakened participants from the race.

Each participant agrees that the data they provided during registration, and the photos, films and interviews on the radio, TV, advertising, books, photomechanical copies – films, video tapes etc. – they make in connection with their participation in the KAT100 may be used without any reimbursement. Each participant states that their given birth year is correct and that they will not pass on their start number to another person. There is no right to a refund of the entry fee in the case of non-arrival (note re. data protection regulations: your data will be stored by machine). The participant who has already paid the entry fee is not entitled to a refund of the entry fee if the event has to be cancelled or postponed to another date due to force majeure or official prohibition.

Each participant accepts all ASTA anti-doping regulations (doping checks) even if they are not a member of an association or club. The KAT100 is held in accordance with Austrian Skyrunning & Trailrunning Association (ASTA) guidelines. Participants can find the ASTA guidelines on the homepage of the Austrian association (www.trailrunning-verband.at) and are obliged to keep to the ASTA guidelines.

By participating, the athlete commits to compliance with the anti-doping regulations of the Anti-Doping Federal Act of 2007 and the associated provisions of the relevant national and international sports trade association (in particular statutes, rules of sport, competition rules). Athletes are deemed to be a person who is a member or licensee of a sports organisation or its affiliated organisation, or who were one at the time of a potential breach of anti-doping regulations, or who participates in competitions held by a sports organisation or its affiliated organisation or those sponsored by federal sports funding. The organisers and promoters strictly oppose doping. As a participant, you warrant that you have not taken or will take any kind of prohibited substances or prohibited methods for doping purposes. You can find information on whether a drug or treatment method is prohibited here: www.nada.at/medikamentenabfrage This service of the National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA Austria) is also available as 'MedApp' for Android and IOS. Should taking prohibited substances or the use of prohibited methods be required by the participating athlete according to a medical or dental diagnosis, it is strongly recommended to keep all medical certificates and findings for any potential retroactive therapeutic use exemption. You can find more detailed information here: <https://www.nada.at/de/medizin/krankheit-oder-verletzung>

The KAT100 team wishes all participants a successful completion of the race, and a great trail running experience in the Kitzbühel Alps.

We reserve the right to make changes even at short notice.
