Elena Horton (USA, UTMB Index 705) impressed in her debut 100-miler, taking the tape in the Women Elite race ahead of Jacquie Mannhard (USA, UTMB Index 652) and Sonia Ahuja (USA, UTMB Index 640). 2023 podium finisher Canyon Woodward (USA, UTMB Index 811) jumped two positions in 2024, claiming the Men Elite victory ahead of Nicholas Lightbody (CAN, UTMB Index 825) and Nick CliffOrr (USA, UTMB Index 686).

Horton said, "There were some tough parts, but I pushed through, and it was really fun and really beautiful. Next up, my husband and I will be racing La Sportiva[™] Lavaredo Ultra Trail[™] by UTMB[®] as part of a late honeymoon."

The stand-out performance of the weekend came from the 2022 UTMB[®] Women winner at HOKA UTMB[®] Mont-Blanc, Katie Schide (USA, UTMB Index 801). Leading from the start of the Women Elite 100K, the American runner continued to extend her gap to finish almost one hour ahead of her closest competitors, EmKay Sullivan (USA, UTMB Index 760) and Anna Kacius (USA, UTMB Index 747), which also saw her finish sixth place overall.

Schide said, "Everything went smoothly, and I just focussed on ticking off the aid stations. I tried to latch onto some guys when I had the chance and I just focused on not doing anything stupid.

"I want to thank Kim and Topher Gaylord who crewed me and who gave up their whole week just to come and hand me flasks at aid stations, it really means a lot. Shout-out also to my parents who came all the way from Maine to come see me for the week as I currently live in Europe. They have been super helpful driving me around and finding me out on the course."

The Men Elite race proved a much tighter battle, with a group of twenty runners all sticking close together for the first half of the race before Rod Farvard (USA, UTMB Index 863) started to pull away. The American runner got stronger as the race went on, establishing a gap of over six minutes on second-placed Drew Holmen (USA, UTMB Index 884). Petter Engdahl (SWE, UTMB Index 925) finished in third, just over ten minutes behind the leader.

Dani Moreno (USA, UTMB Index 783) flew into the finish in the Women Elite 50K, with Jennifer Lichter (USA, UTMB Index 773) and Tabor Hemming (USA, UTMB Index 737) applying the pressure from behind. It proved a good day out for the Hemming's, with Eli Hemming (USA, UTMB Index 911) going on to take the victory in the Men Elite 50K race, ahead of Daniel Jones (NZL, UTMB Index 905) and Cole Watson (USA, UTMB Index 881).

The American dominance continued in the 20K race, with Talon Hull (USA, UTMB Index 830) and Bailey Cossentine (USA) taking the tape.
