2. What personal data do we collect?

In the context of rendering our Services, we may collect personal data about you. This personal data regularly includes the following:

- If you register for an Event. Username, password, name, nationality, email address, phone number, address, birth date, gender, emergency contact information, registration number, club affiliation and other information you provide during registration. We may add the age category (automatically calculated) and Performance Index.
- If you contact us via our website, email, phone or mail. We may collect your name, email address, phone number, and other information you provide.
- If you subscribe to our newsletter. Name, email address, marketing campaign information such as your reaction to our marketing and your interest in our Services.
- If you merely use our website. IP address, network file system, access times, domain name, browser data, browser type and language, device type, device ID, Uniform Resource Locators (URL), operating system, language preferences, information on your usage of our websites and online activities.
- Information we collect during your participation of our Event. Information on your performance, such as your starting number, your place in the rankings, your time in each checkpoint and your forecast time in the next check point and other information in the context of your ranking and any other information you provide us during the Event.

- Information we collect from social networks. When you interact with our Services through various social media, such as when you login through Facebook or when you follow or share our content on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram or other sites, we may receive information from those social networks including your profile information, picture, user ID associated with your social media account, friends list, and any other information you permit the social network to share with third parties. The data we receive is dependent upon your privacy settings.

3. How do we collect your personal data?

Personal data is collected in many ways and may include:

- Personal data you provide to us: Most of the personal data we receive comes to us voluntarily from our users in the course of using our Services, such as when visiting our website, registering and participating in our Events or communicating with us.

You are free to choose which information you want to provide to us or whether you want to provide us with personal data at all. However, some information, such as information requested in the registration procedure and information collected during the Event may be necessary for the performance of our contractual obligations in the context of your Event participation. Without providing this data, you will not be able to enter into a contract with us, such as registering for our Events.

- personal data collected via technology: As you use our websites, we may collect information through the use of cookies. Please see Section 9 for more information.
- personal data we receive from others: We may receive personal data about users from third parties such as our Registration Partners, social media sites, Marketing Partners (as defined below) and law enforcement agencies.

4. Why and on which legal basis do we collect and use your personal data?

The reasons for using your personal data may differ depending on the purpose of the collection. Regularly we use your data for the following purposes and on the following legal grounds:

- We use your personal data in order to perform our contractual services or for the preparation of entering into a contract with you. If you register for our Events or if you contact us to register for our Events, we use your data to conduct our Events and make your participation in our Events possible. Information we use includes: information we need to contact you or otherwise communicate with you, e.g. to send you administrative information, registration and Event information to process your Event registration and participation; information for payments processing; information to respond to your comments and questions and provide customer service; if you are a registered user: information to manage and create your account.

- We use your personal data if justified by our legitimate interests. The usage of your personal data may also be necessary for our own business interests. For example, we may use some of your personal data to evaluate and review our Events and overall business performance, create financial statements, understand you and your preferences to enhance and individualize your experience and enjoyment of our Services, improve our Services, and identify potential cyber security threats. If necessary, we may also use your personal data to pursue or defend ourselves against legal claims. We may use your personal data to provide you with individualized marketing. For instance, we deliver targeted advertising messages to you on our websites and elsewhere on the Internet. If you have participated in our Events before, we may use your email address to provide you with information on similar events.
- We use your personal data after obtaining your consent. In some cases, we may ask you to grant us separate consent to use your personal data. You are free to deny your consent and the denial will have no negative consequences for you. You are free to withdraw your consent at any time with effect for the future. If you have granted us consent to use your personal data, we will use it only for the purposes specified in the consent form.

This also includes our marketing campaigns. If you sign up to our email newsletter or when providing us with your email address allow us to use this email address for email marketing, we will use your personal data in our email marketing campaigns. You may unsubscribe from our email newsletter at any time by using the link contained in every e-mail we send. You may also contact us via email, phone or mail at the addresses provided at the beginning of this document to request that we remove you from our email list.

- We use your personal data to comply with legal obligations. We are obligated to retain certain data because of legal requirements, for example, tax or commercial laws or we may be required by law enforcement to provide personal data on request.

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we have collected them. We will not use your personal data for other purposes. We do not use your personal data for automated individual decision-making.

5. With whom do we share your personal data?

As required in accordance with how we use it, we will share your personal data with the following third parties:

Service providers and advisors: Third party vendors and other service providers that perform services for us and on our behalf, which may include marketing campaign services, providing mailing or email services, tax and accounting services, services related to the registration and organization of our Events, payment processing, data enhancement services, fraud prevention, web hosting, or providing analytic services. These third parties include: the companies in charge of printing the race bib, the people in charge of the safety of the race (doctors, first-aiders...), Athletes for Transparency Agency (Quartz Program), commercial partners for animations, timing and race follow up company, UTMB Group (overall organizer of UTMB World Series)... Any such service providers will by appropriate data processing agreements be bound to only process the data on our behalf and under our instructions.

Special case of Personal Data & Health: In the course of the registration, you will be asked to create an health space to fill in your health profile. You will be asked voluntarily to add some medical information that could be useful if we have to rescue you during the race. This information is regulated by our partner's privacy policy (<https://www.quartzprogram.org/fr/accueil/>)

The data processing is intended to:

- Recording, before the start of the Mallorca by UTMB the race and civil status information (bib number, first name, surname, gender, date of birth, email, postal address, phone number, emergency contact, etc.) of the participants in order to speed up their care if necessary (this does not apply to spectators). This data is provided to LOGEVER HEALTHCARE by DOKEVER.
- To collect, on a voluntary basis, the medical history of the persons attending the races of the Mallorca by UTMB . The questions asked concern allergies, hospitalizations, past or chronic illnesses, chronic treatments, as well as recent signs of contagiousness. For this purpose, your e-mail address will be shared with the logicoss.com platform, which will send you a maximum of 2 e-mails (initial e-mail and follow-up if necessary), in order to invite you to answer an online health questionnaire (more information on <https://www.logicoss.com/care/>).
- Assess the individual and collective health risk induced by the presence of each person at the Event.
 - Before the Event, it allows to evaluate the risk of epidemic propagation.
 - During or after the event, it allows to follow with more attention the most fragile persons.

- To know the medical history of the persons taken in charge, in order to improve the treatment in particular for the most serious accidents and faintings.
- To ensure traceability of the care given to each patient, which is a medico-legal obligation.
- Centralize data, in order to create and calculate anonymized statistical analyses. These analyses can be used for research and development purposes. In particular, they aim to better understand the cause of an accident or illness. The ultimate goal is to improve the safety and quality of health care on the Event. All research projects based on data collected on the Logicoss platform are and will remain available for consultation in the coming years on the <https://www.logicoss.com/recherche/> Only projects based on coded and/or pseudonymized Data will be conducted. Any processing of Data requiring the removal of anonymization on the part of the Data Controller may only be carried out after having obtained a Declaration of Consent concerning access to the medical file, signed by the patient.

All the health data collected will be available only to a) the medical director of the event
b) the caregivers who will examine you during the event, in compliance with professional and medical confidentiality.

The Personal Data are deposited to the Claranet company, holder of the Health Data Host Certification (HDS), in accordance with the provisions of Article L.1111-8 of the Public Health Code.

Pursuant to Articles 15 and following of the GDPR, each person has the right to object to the deposit of his or her data with this certified host, subject to the expression of a legitimate reason. Similarly, each person has the right to access and rectify information concerning him or her.
