Race Results: Eiger Ultra-Trail by UTMB and Speedgoat Mountain Races by UTMB

Eiger Ultra-Trail™ by UTMB®

Sophia Laukli (USA - E51 Panorama Trail - 50K - first place female):

"It was so so cool. I was happy that we were running slow enough and we can take some times to look at the mountains. It was still super hot, but it made it easier to be able to be in this place for sure!"

Joshurun Small (USA - E51 Panorama Trail - 50K - first place male):

"The race was tough. There were a lot of mixed emotions, a lot of mixed terrain, but it was great. A lot of beautiful views. It was a very diverse course: a lot of runnable parts and a lot of technical ones too. It had everything. It was an amazing race."

Ramon Manetsch (SUI - E101 - Ultra Trail - 100K - second place male):

"Grindelwald is one of the most beautiful place in the world. I grew up not far away from here in the region of Thoun so I know this area very well and it was beautiful."

Speedgoat™ Mountain Races by UTMB®

David Sinclair (USA - 52km - first place male):

"I kind of nailed the pacing, nailed the nutrition, nailed the cooling strategy. It was a perfect day out there. I just love this race, one of the hardest 50K's in the country. It's got a little bit of everything: beautiful scenery, hard technical parts, a couple runnable smooth sections."

Robyn Lesh (USA - 32km - first place female):

"This race is a lot of fun! You go running quick and then go up a mountain, down the other side, back up and straight down the front side. So pretty much after the second hidden peak you just send it at full speed."
