TDS, ETC and YCC: trail running in all its forms on day 2 of the HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc

While the TDS is still underway with this year's particularly strong field giving it their all out on the trails, Tuesday's races in Courmayeur (YCC and ETC) highlighted the HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc's mission perfectly, bringing together experienced athletes, young talent and amateur runners keen to discover trail running.

The ETC, a short but demanding format

The second edition of the Experience Trail Courmayeur (ETC) lived up to all its promise with more than 1,000 participants running the 15km, 1,200m D+ course driven by their goals, talents and desires. Runners were able to experience the thrill of pushing themselves to the limit against the exceptional backdrop of the Italian side of Mont-Blanc.

The men's podium was 100% international. Winner Lukas Ehrle (GER - UTMB Index 880) clocked a very fast time of 1h 19min 56sec, while only 4 seconds separated second-placed Alex Garcia Carrillo (ESP - UTMB Index 883) from third-placed Daniel Pattis (ITA - UTMB Index 904).

The women's category also provided intense competition with Anaëlle Bondoux (FRA - UTMB Index 767) winning the race in 1h 32min 52sec. Maude Mathys (SUI - UTMB Index 808) and Vivien Bonzi (ITA - UTMB Index 699) completed the podium in second and third respectively.

Youth on the agenda with the YCC

At 11:00 this morning in sunshine and optimal race conditions, 307 young runners born between 2005 and 2010 set off from Courmayeur. For this race of future champions, the HOKA UTMB® Mont-Blanc provides routes set in the Italian Alps that are adapted to each age category.

After the first round of this two-part race, tomorrow we meet in Chamonix for round 2: YCC The Revenge. This time the young runners will start in the reverse order of today's rankings.

Athletes were able to experience the warm welcome of the Val d'Aosta and the unspoilt Alpine atmosphere of the town of Courmayeur during today's two events.
