Heidi Orthing (CAN - 50K - third place female):

"It was a tough, but fun day out there. A lot of climbing at the start, which was definitely harder than I anticipated, but this is my first kind of longer trail race that I've done, so I just wanted to get one in, and I'm actually in Whistler for a conference right now, so it worked out nicely to be able to combine the race with that."

Richard Cook (USA - 100K - first place male):

"That was fabulous. I'm originally from New England and Whistler means a ton to me. And my dad brought me out here as a kid a several times. The sunrise came up over the mountains and it was incredible. It's one of the prettiest races I've ever run. Such a great variety of terrain, a lot of technical parts too. I was super, super fun and I appreciate everybody all the volunteers, all the race organizers for making it happen."
