Courtney Dauwalter (USA - 100M - first place female):

"I feel extremely fortunate to have experienced this race in such a stunning setting. During the final climb, seeing Nice and the sea, I felt an intense thrill and was happy to be here. I knew the course would be demanding, technical and very tough, especially with the rain overnight, but I loved every moment."

Jonathan Albon (GBR - 50K - first place male):

"Such a nice weather! I am looking forward to going for a swim. On paper the race didn't look as tough as it was, but the trails are quite rough and technical with a lot of little ups and downs, twists and turns. We had to be on our toes pretty much the whole way. But it was very enjoyable."
