

Extended collective licensing

Objection form

In accordance with Article L. 324-8-2 of the French Intellectual Property Code, non-ADAGP member authors can request, at any time, that their works be excluded from the scope of extended collective licensing contracts administered by ADAGP.

If you wish to exercise your right to object, please complete and sign this form, and send it by post to the following address: ADAGP (service juridique), 11 rue Duguay-Trouin, 75006 Paris, France. The following supporting documents must be forwarded along with the form:

-for living authors: a copy of an identity document;

-for authors' rights holders (heirs or legatees): a copy of an identity document, a copy of the notarial deed(s) ("acte(s) de notoriété") establishing your status as the author's rights holder;

-for the exclusive assignees of copyright in an author's works: a copy of the exclusive copyright assignment, a copy of an identity document if the assignee is a natural person, or a certificate of incorporation ("extrait Kbis") if the assignee is a legal entity.

I hereby notify my objection to ADAGP authorising the exploitation of my works or the works of the author whose rights I hold, in the context of:

☐ any extended collective licensing, present or future, administered by ADAGP

☐ the extended collective licensing scheme (AEE MESRE-2026) applicable to the reproduction and the representation of visual artworks in publications or works published without access restrictions, as part of research and higher education activities in a non-profit context (extension provided for in Article L. 139-1 of the French Intellectual Property Code)

I acknowledge that this objection, which will take effect within 3 months following receipt of the form, entails my renunciation of any future remuneration deriving from the extended collective licensing mentioned above.

Protection of personal data: The personal data collected through this form will be processed by ADAGP solely for the purposes of fulfilling its legal obligations. In accordance with the law, ADAGP will be required to publish on its website the list of authors who have exercised their right to object (surname and first name, or pseudonym), as well as their dates of birth and death. Unless there is a legal obligation to retain the data for a longer period, the data will be retained until the end of the extended collective licensing period. In accordance with the law, you may access your personal data, rectify it, request its erasure, object to its processing or exercise your right to data portability by contacting the data protection officer by post (ADAGP – DPO, 11 rue Duguay-Trouin, 75006 Paris), email (dpo@adagp.fr) or phone (+33 (0)1 43 59 09 79). Any complaints regarding this processing may be addressed to the CNIL (www.cnil.fr).
