GUATEMALA:

Guatemala is one of the most important countries in the world for its natural and cultural wealth. It is characterized by having a formidable climate and a geographic location that allows students to use their free weekends to visit lakes, rivers, and volcanoes, as well as to appreciate different cultures, communities, and archaeological sites, that one by one relives the history of the Mayan civilization.

UVG:

Universidad del Valle de Guatemala is one of the most prestigious universities in Central America. As a leader in science and technology in Guatemala is a reference in the promotion of research and teaching excellence.

At UVG you can choose between five faculties with more than 70 careers, both undergraduate and postgraduate programs, which include more than 1,500 courses in science, humanities, engineering, and education. The university also has 11 research centers dedicated to exploring solutions to problems in the region, in various areas.
