

Construction VMI and Jobsite Coordination On-site Service Levels

Level 1

Self Managed Racking and Carting

Contractor utilizes Werner Electric carts and racking for a rental fee (Caged Cart, Clamshell Cart, Wooden Cubby Cart, Pipe Tree, Master Bundle Cart)

7 - 10 day lead time for new cart requests with parts

Self+Werner Electric Managed Material

Customer utilizes Werner Electric ordering technology with delivery dock to dock

Customer manages all product on-site

Customer provides material list for creating labels

Werner Electric provides customer with labels / initial setup of storage solution (i.e., Trailer Setup)

Customer is provided with and trained on Werner Electric website app

7 - 10 day lead time for new cart requests with parts

Level 2 (Level 1 Included)

Werner Electric Managed Services

Customer provides initial Bill of Materials (BOM)

Werner Electric preloads and sets up job boxes or required material storage for site

Werner Electric Jobsite Coordinator provides inventory and replenishment on a predetermined schedule

Multiple location / multiple floor product ordering, delivery, and movement

Werner Electric provides monthly burn report to show material used on-site (Breakdown of usage per cart / per floor)

Werner Electric provides return bin and processes and removes returns from site on a weekly basis

Werner Electric removes all cardboard / packing material from site per visit

Werner Electric Jobsite Coordinator calls / texts designated contact / foreman on each visit

On-site safety training requirements

Monthly breakdowns provided for service costs

Keep Skilled Labor Focused on Skilled Labor, Let Werner Electric Handle the Rest!

Level 3 (Levels 1 & 2 Included)

Encompassing all other Levels of Service, Level 3 provides full-time, on-site material handling personnel. Level 3 is fully customizable before the contract is agreed upon.

Werner Electric Managed Services

Customer provides initial Bill of Materials (BOM)

Werner Electric preloads and sets up job boxes or required material storage for site

Werner Electric Jobsite Coordinator provides inventory and replenishment on a predetermined schedule

Multiple location / multiple floor product ordering, delivery, and movement

Werner Electric provides monthly burn report to show material used on site (Breakdown of usage per cart / per floor)

Full on-site material management

Service contract agreement

Product ordering (Allows skilled labor to do required skilled jobs)

Product movement and staging on-site

Product delivery directly to Electricians (Using on call radio)

Maintain fleet of on-site equipment (Charge lifts, fill batteries, set up / fuel generators)

Ability to operate power equipment dependent on site rules and requirements (will be certified through third party)

Miscellaneous duties including prefab and wire management on-site

Act as main point of contact between job site and Werner Electric

Complete parts requests through ordering, receiving, and shipping
(Werner Electric supplied materials, other distributors' product, delivery of product to where it's needed)

Schedule any crane or lull time prior to arriving on-site

Monthly breakdowns provided for service costs

Werner Electric provides return bin and processes and removes returns from site on a weekly basis

Werner Electric removes all cardboard / packing material from site per visit

Werner Electric Jobsite Coordinator calls / texts designated contact / foreman on each visit

On-site safety training requirements

On-site services, customized for your specific needs!

