

The Picquic for every trade

The addition of a dual ended, reversible nut-driving shank makes this Picquic ideal for plumbers, refrigeration technicians, appliance and HVAC technicians, among many other trades. Available only in electric blue.

Merchandise in blister package or the 12 piece pre-assembled counter display:

Four bit assortments to choose from, including both Canadian and American standard bit assortments, as well as each offered with a Schrader valve bit.

Schrader valves are used on many refrigeration and air conditioning systems and by plumbers for pressure testing. The Schrader valve is also used as a bleeding and test port on the fuel rail of some fuel injected engines as well as on automotive, motorcycle and bicycle tires and air shock absorbers.
