Our products are carefully packaged in honeycomb packaging. This type of packaging provides the highest levels of protection due its ability cushion and absorb shock allowing products to transport safely, minimizing product damage and returns.

Provides cushioning (prevents product breakage, dents, scratches etc.)

Nos produits sont soigneusement emballés dans un emballage nid d'abeille " honeycomb ". Ce type d'emballage offre un niveaux de protection plus élevé en raison de sa capacité d'amortir et d'absorber les chocs, permettant ainsi un transport sûr des produits, en minimisant les dommages et les retours. Fournit un amorti (empêche le produit de se casser, les bosses, les égratignures, etc) .

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a grey pencil, drawing a detailed architectural sketch of a building facade on a white sheet of paper. The sketch includes windows, doors, and structural lines. In the background, several other colored pencils are scattered on the table, and an eraser is visible in the lower foreground. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.
