LIVING

Bathroom designers dream about it: Creating lots of interior styles from a single mold employing just a few basic forms. Dream becomes reality with the signature ceramics of living by LAUFEN, created by the design group, Phoenix Design. The motif of the extensive bathroom ensemble is contemporary living and well-being. After all, the bathroom long ago developed from its wet room origins to become an integrated part of modern living concepts. The ceramic elements form an integrated series with matching WCs, bidets, bathtubs and shower trays as well as furniture.
