Premium quality contemporary clothing made with respect for both people and the planet.

At Stanley/Stella, we constantly challenge the status quo, proudly showing that on-demand apparel can be produced in a way that is respectful of both our planet and its people, and at the same time, ensures outstanding choice and quality.

At every step of the journey, we are committed to making conscious decisions that bring positive impact: we use 100% organic cotton as well as recycled and reclaimed materials, we build close relationships with our five factories in Bangladesh to continuously improve working conditions, we design styles that meet our customers' needs and that people love to wear, and we deliver quality that lasts.

We believe that innovation, quality and sustainability go hand in hand to build the fashion industry of the future.

STANLEY/STELLA

Innovation

Our innovation mindset pushes us to explore new ways of doing things and keeps us on top of our game. Always looking ahead, we remain at the forefront of product development and aim to create the ultimate digital customer experience.

Quality

We strive to deliver outstanding quality at every level of our business. From the fit, feel and finish of our garments, to our operational processes and customer service, we take pride in being recognised for our quality and attention to detail.

Sustainability

Our desire for a better world drives the choices we make every day. We work hard to ensure an environmentally and socially responsible chain of production, from our use of organic and recycled materials to our pursuit of fair wages, and beyond.

Setting a new standard

With the new Stanley/Stella polo collection, we've re-written the rules of the classic polo: organic cotton in an unrivalled choice of colours and dyeing techniques, inclusive styles designed to look and feel great, a new modern fit, and meticulous attention to detail. Just like it should be.

Comfortable fit

A boxier, contemporary fit and a more relaxed sleeve offer comfort and good looks in equal measure, making this a true wardrobe staple that's a joy to wear.

Refined details

Recycled buttons in a matching colour add a discreet finishing touch, while clean side slits and a neater placket add to the appeal. The perfect choice for any occasion.

Supreme versatility

Our diverse palette of colours and dyeing techniques offers unlimited styling options. From muted neutrals and vibrant solid colours to garment-dyed shades, a choice of heathers and a preppy all-over check.
