In a preliminary research study conducted using the formula of our UltraSupport Vitamin C, there were increased levels of absorption as compared to both normal vitamin C and a placebo. In addition, there was a reduction in oxidative stress levels and interestingly, in contrast to traditional vitamin C, there were no reports of stomach discomfort.*

INNOVATIVE LIQUID FORMULA

The liquid formula of UltraSupport vitamins and minerals makes it easy to get the nutrients you need! The liquid vitamins are more easily absorbed and utilized by your body to provide you maximum benefits!

And, the liquid formula is more bio-available (body-ready) than capsules or tablets.

CHOOSE THE BEST

As we know, oil and water don't mix. It's a widely known fact that oil-based products are poorly absorbed by the body. Our proprietary UltraCell™ technology has been developed by our team of experts to eliminate this issue. UltraCell™ technology has been demonstrated in a clinical study to enhance the bioavailability of our products.
