The Science

The Endocannabinoid System, or ECS, is a complex network of receptors that are found throughout your body, including your central nervous system, peripheral nervous system, and immune system. The goal of the ECS is to maintain a stable internal environment despite fluctuations in the external environment. It is believed to be the system that keeps the body in balance. Your ECS is fueled by endocannabinoids, molecules produced by your body that interact with these receptors.

When the production of endocannabinoids becomes slowed or imbalanced, phytocannabinoids, which are cannabinoids produced in the hemp plant, can supplement what the body may be lacking.

CBN, or cannabinol, is one of the hundreds of naturally-occurring phytocannabinoids found in the hemp plant. Although CBN was one of the first cannabinoids to be identified, we're one of the first companies to explore CBN and develop this innovative product to support your needs!†
