

June 1, 2026

Dear Valued Industry Partners,

We are thrilled to announce that Mark Kitzi has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of Anomatic, effective June 1, 2026.

Mark brings more than 30 years of experience in the packaging industry and a deep commitment to commercial and operational excellence. Over decades in leadership roles, Mark has built solid foundations with a growth-focused mindset in a fast-paced industry, by seizing opportunities to elevate. We couldn't be more confident in the vision and leadership he is bringing to our company.

For you, our valued customers and supplier partners, our commitment to delivering outstanding products and service remains our top priority. You will see changes, most visibly in the form of innovative solutions that add real value to your business, and we look forward to growing and serving you better.

Please help us welcome Mark to Anomatic!

Sincerely,

The Anomatic Team
